Title:- DECISIONS TAKEN UNDER SPECIAL URGENCY –
QUARTERLY REPORT

Report of:- THE LEADER

Report reference:- TC.10/02

Summary:-

The Access to Information Procedure Rules 17.3 requires me to submit a quarterly report to Council on Executive's decisions taken under Special Urgency in the preceding 3 months.

There has only been one instance of a decision being taken under those provisions which related to John Street Hostel (Minute EX.71/01) and this matter was a non-key decision.

There have been a number of items which have been dealt with under the General Exception of Rule 15 and which have been included on the agendas of Executive Meetings as key decisions, although they were not in the Forward Plan. These were as follows :

Note: in compliance with section 100d of the Local Government (Access to Information) Act 1985 the report has been prepared in part from the following papers: Decision Notices

EX.80/01 Pilot Kerbside Recycling Scheme
EX.118.01 Competitive Tendering
EX.119/01 Longtown Market Town Initiative

There was also one item which was taken by the Chairman as an urgent item which was not a key decision.

Minute EX.18/01 LSVT Property Conveyancing Process.

Copy Decision Notices in respect of each of the above decisions are attached.
